

Annual Christmas Party

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY

(Date: December 23, 2004)

It was a great moment to have employees of different religions and races from Thiam Joo Malaysia (Head Office) being brought together as one to celebrate the once a year Christmas Day.

The Christmas party was a "Short & Sweet" event. It was kicked off with a loud cheer of "Merry Christmas"!! All participants were wearing Christmas hats to create the joyous feeling of the season. The people had a simple lunch and straight down to the heaviest agenda of the party -The Presents Draw!! Employees enjoyed themselves in this simple yet meaningful party.

It is rampant that the company has similiar gathering to enhance employees relationship. Employees can take the opportunity to relax and enjoy themselves out of their busy working schedule. It is widely believed that the employees are able to perform better in a happy working environment. The result of the event is encouraging. The company plan to bring joy to the unfortunate in the near future, as we care not only for the employees, but also the society.

