IT WAS a fun-filled evening for those who attended a gala dinner held to mark the 45th anniversary of the Dovechem Group.

The event, held at Sunway Lagoon Resort Hotel in Bandar Sunway on Saturday, featured an eight-course dinner, dances and a brief performance by Malaysian violinist Joanne Yeoh.

It was attended by more than 900 people, including the company's business associates from countries such as Japan, Australia, China, Vietnam and the United States.

A performer named Donna Daniels lit up the atmosphere with jokes and lively interaction with the audience.

Guests were also pleasantly surprised when Daniels displayed her ability to sing a variety of songs in different languages including Indian, Japanese and Malay.

The highlight of the evening was a dazzling 20-minute performance by Hong Kong superstar Sally Yeh.

Yeh belted out a few of her hit songs and got members of the audience to dance with her during a rendition of the classic disco hit, Dancing Queen.

In his speech, Dovechem founder and chairman Ng Joo Soon said the Dovechem Group was one of the leading chemical solvent distributors in the Asia-Pacific region engaged in distribution, manufacturing and logistics for petrochemical-related industries.

Ng also thanked those present for their contributions and support in helping the company to prosper.

During the event, it was announced that 10 ISO certifications had been recently obtained for the company's operations in China, Indonesia, Malaysia and Singapore.

The company also presented donations totalling RM88,000 to St John Ambulance Malaysia (Federal Territory) and MAA-Medicare Kidney Charity Fund.

Daniels lit up the atmosphere with her hilarious jokes and lively interaction with the audience.
